

1412 Milstead Avenue
Conyers, GA 30012

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

August 4, 2011

ROCKDALE MEDICAL CENTER NAMES NEW COO

Beemal Shah, has been named Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Rockdale Medical Center (RMC), Conyers, Georgia. Shah is replacing former COO, Deborah Armstrong, who was promoted to CEO earlier this year.

Highly regarded for his work ethic and many professional accomplishments over the past several years with HCA, Shah most recently served as Chief Operating Officer at Regional Medical Center Bayonet Point in Hudson, Florida. In addition to his operational leadership experience, he has also worked as a Management Engineer and a Planning Analyst in the healthcare industry.

He is excited to be back in Georgia where he graduated from Georgia Institute of Technology and received a Bachelor of Science with Highest Honor in Industrial Engineering. Shah also received a Master of Health Administration degree from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond, Virginia. Shah is also a member of the American College of Healthcare Executives.

“Mr. Shah brings significant healthcare experience to Rockdale and our community and I am pleased to have him join our team,” said Deborah Armstrong, CEO.

###

About Rockdale Medical Center

Rockdale Medical Center (RMC) is a 138-bed licensed hospital serving Conyers, Georgia, and surrounding communities. Located about 25 miles east of Atlanta, Rockdale Medical Center is accredited by The Joint Commission and other accrediting bodies including: College of American Pathologists (CAP), American Association of Blood Banks (AABB), and Intersocietal Commission for the Accreditation of Echocardiography Laboratories (ICAEL). RMC provides quality healthcare with the latest technology, including a new da Vinci Si® Surgical System. For more information, please visit www.rockdalemedicalcenter.org.